The SEALs and Rangers, known as Task Force Sword, were inserted into the mountains by helicopter. They quickly made contact with the enemy, and a fierce firefight ensued. The SEALs and Rangers fought bravely, but they were outnumbered and outgunned. One by one, they were killed or wounded.

As the battle raged, a second team of SEALs and Rangers, known as Task Force Knight, was dispatched to rescue Task Force Sword. Task Force Knight fought its way through heavy enemy fire to reach the crash site, but it was too late. All of the SEALs and Rangers of Task Force Sword had been killed.

The Battle of Operation Red Wings was a tragedy, but it was also a story of heroism and sacrifice. The SEALs and Rangers of Task Force Sword and Task Force Knight fought bravely against overwhelming odds. Their sacrifice will never be forgotten.
