The Maryland Campaign of September 1862: Volume II - Antietam, the Bloodiest Day

The Maryland Campaign of September 1862 was a turning point in the American Civil War. After a series of Confederate victories in the summer of 1862, the Union Army under General George B. McClellan invaded Maryland in an attempt to capture the Confederate capital of Richmond, Virginia. The Confederates under General Robert E. Lee intercepted McClellan's army at Antietam Creek on September 17, 1862, and the two armies clashed in one of the bloodiest battles of the war.
